“ I will never forget us meeting in 8th grade...the memories we share will never be forgotten and I will forever hold you dear to my heart. Kris misses you, Trina misses you, I miss you, we all miss you..I have ran away from my pain lately but know sis that you will never be forgotten. I pray for Ms. Nikki, Jada, and your family and hope that we will all soon have peace with your absence, Til we meet again in the sky sis...Love, Chey

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Ms. Deja Parks. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief, but you can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15; John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow, you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Deja Parks. Although I did not personally know your loved one, as humans we have all experienced the death of someone. It's at such a time that I have found the words of Isaiah 41:10, 13 to be comforting. To know that our Heavenly Father is aware of the pain and anguish we are feeling and is here for us, is very encouraging. At Acts 24:15 he gives us the assurance that we will see our loved ones again. I hope his words and the love and support of family and friends will strengthen you in the days ahead. I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ May "the God of all comfort" grant you all peace as you look ahead to the time when "death will be no more." God's Word promises..."The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
