“ To my dear niece. I know that being absent from the body means that you are present with the lord. I am glad that the lord gave me a chance to express my love to you while you were here with us. Although your life's journey has come to the end here on earth, it's just the beginning on the other side where there are no more sickness or anything, just everlasting life with the abundance of joy! Your aunt Patricia. Your father will be waiting for you with open arms, what a time that will be when he sees you.

“ May you all gain comfort as you consider God's loving resurrection provision: "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in restoring life to ones who fall asleep in death when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25).

“ My condolences in the loss of your dear loved one. When our loved ones die, the pain of grief may seem unbearable. Our loving God Jehovah is aware of this and comforts us by means of his word the Bible. 1 Peter 5:7 says: While you throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Also Psalm 34:18: Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.
