“ We are so very shocked and deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Delores Cooper. We had the pleasure of teaching and being the principal for all of Delores & Stan's girls at one point in their high school career. Delores was a wonderful parent and a beautiful person inside and out. Our heartfelt prayers and thoughts are with Stan, Christina, Lauren, and Tiffany. We Love you all and are so very sorry for your loss. Let's live our lives so we can be a part of the first resurrection when Jesus returns.

If there is anything we can do for any of you, please don't hesitate to contact us.

*Love & Prayers,
Mr. Orlando & Mrs. Brenda L. King
(Former GAAA Principal & Teacher)*

“ We extend condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Cooper. God is aware of the sorrow that death causes and “He sent His only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him.” 1John 4:9. Jesus assures us: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” ~John 11:25.

“ So sorry for your loss, such a beautiful young lady, Ms. ----- no doubt brought joy to her family and friends. Death represents the loss of future dreams, relationships and experiences that have not yet been enjoyed. In the Bible Acts 17:31 said ‘God has provided a guarantee to all people by resurrecting Jesus from the dead’. This guarantee transcends to all humans (a better time and place)
