“ I am very sorry for your loss. Although I did not know your loved one personally, I hope knowing that they are in our loving heavenly Father's memory will bring your family comfort during this difficult time. Very soon now we can look forward to God's promise at a Revelation 21:4: "... Death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore, the former thing gave passed away."

Sincerely,
Monique

“ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family and friends of Ms. Woods. God cares for you all and your loved one..."He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up ones who had fallen asleep in death. Jesus assures us: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God promises a future when "death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29).

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Death was never part of our Heavenly Father’s original purpose for mankind. In fact, in His word the Bible He calls it an enemy (1Cor. 15:26) which He promises in the very near future to do away with (Rev. 21:4,5) At that time tragedies and accidents will be a thing of the past, no one will ever get sick (Isaiah 33:24) and there will be a reuniting, a bringing back to life instead of losing (John 5:28,29) Please allow these words to be of comfort to you and give you hope. (2Cor. 1:3,4)
