“ Words cannot begin to express my sincerest condolences to the family of my dear friend and sister in Christ, Deloris Birch. She walked with Grace. She stood with boldness. She spoke with authority. She lived with justification. She served with humility and she loved with compassion. If she could do what you ask, she did it. If she couldn't she told you, and if she had any idea that she could, she tried. She wanted to live and she did. She did not want to leave, but she had to. Deloris you will be greatly missed and you will always be in my heart. Barnett, Morgan, Bernadette and Harrison, I remain here for support and care. I love you all dearly. I pray God will give you peace with His decision.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. We had the pleasure of uniting with them thru Mount Zion Second Baptist Church and remained connected. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Rest well- Servant Deloris. Barnett, Bernadette, Morgan and Harrison. you are in our constant thoughts and prayers as you adjust to your new norm. Deloris has simply changed her physical address. But, she will always be in your hearts. Blessings and sympathy- Karen A. Hill & family.

“ I celebrate the life of Delores Birch, she was a very sweet and caring person always willing to visit shelters and help put together Care Packages for the homeless. I met and got to know Delores when she first starting working in the Missions Ministry. She showed up whenever her health allowed her to. She was an inspiration and a blessing to me and so many others with her strength and determination to live life to the fullest. Death ends a life, but not a relationship built on love. Rest well my dear sweet song bird. Continued prayer for Morgan, Bernadette, Harrison, and her loving husband Burnett. In the days ahead, I pray you find strength, peach, and comfort in the treasured memories you shared.
My deepest condolences, Cleopatra

“ I called her “Sister Jesus-I-Love-You” because she sang that song with such passion! That was her song. I know Deloris loves Jesus and is now safely in His loving arms. Brother Barnett, Bernadette, Morgan, and Harrison— we are holding you up in prayer.
