

Mr. Demeatrias Antron Stanford

February 17, 1981 - January 4, 2014

Obituary

Demeatrias Stanford, 32 of Ellenwood, Georgia, peacefully departed this life on Saturday, January 4, 2014, at Kindred Care Transitional Center.

Demeatrias was born February 17, 1981, in Fulton County of Atlanta, Georgia. The youngest of four children, he attended South Atlanta High School and Atlanta Technical College in Atlanta, Georgia where he attained a diploma as a Automotive Collision Repairman. He also attended Columbus State in Columbus, OH. He was a member of God Vision Ministries of Lithonia, Georgia. He was a Personal Music Assistant for Rapper Yung Ralph of Money Maker Records and Juugman Entertainment. He was an aspiring producer and loved music. He also worked as a ground support man for Gateway Airlines. He enjoyed playing basketball, baseball, traveling, and bowling.

He was a loving son, brother and family man whose greatest joy was spending time with his parents, brother, sister, nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts and cousins. He did not have any children of his own, but always loved spending time with children. He found great joy being with his friends who have always been like family.

Demeatrias is survived by his parents, Leroy H. Stanford and Lillie C. Stanford of Ellenwood, GA; sister, Aundretha Macshell Casper (Calvin) of Bowling Green, KY; brother, Anthony Stanford (Karine) of Champagne France; three nephews, Da'vontae Stanford, Brandon Casper, Rahshaun Casper; three nieces, Aniya Stanford, Nariya Casper, Alexya Stanford; grandmother, Rosetta Register of Valdosta, GA; great uncle Ellis Mumford (Ada) of Valdosta, GA; great aunt, Florine Mumford, Philadelphia, PA; loving godparents, Mack Tyson of Locust Grove, GA and Wanda Miller of Riverdale, GA.

Demeatrias was preceded in death by one sister Lillie Marie Stanford; his grandfather, James Register and grandparents, Nathan Stanford and Florine Jenkins-Stanford. He also leaves to mourn a host of uncles, aunts and cousins who he loved dearly. He had a host of close friends who will also cherish his memory.

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Take comfort in knowing that our Heavenly Creator understands your pain. He will soon remove all pain, sorrow, and death forever! (Rev 21:3,4) May this promise be of comfort to you as you gain the strength and inner peace to cope with the days ahead, remembering that God will be by your side (Philippians 4:13).

“ To the Family of Demeatrias Stanford, I offer my sincere condolences. The bible at 1Corinthians 15:26 calls death our enemy. This scripture also holds out a wonderful hope from our Heavenly Father that this enemy will be brought to nothing. No human government can offer us this assurance. No matter who we are we will experience the sting of death and its devastating effect. What has helped me to endure also are his words found at Isaiah 41:10,13. Our Creator is always here for us to give us what we need when we need it as long as we rely on him fully. May his words and the loving support of your Family and friends strengthen and give you the support you need during this difficult time.

“ Ms. Lillie and Mr. Leroy, I just wanna thank you both for blessing the rest of us with the pleasure of knowing Demeatrias. Never have I met such an honest, straightforward person quite like him! Since the first time we met at Six Flags in '97, little did I know that I'd met someone who would change my life completely. I'm still proud to say that although he's gone, he is still in my heart. I've always considered all of you my extended family. I am praying that we all will heal in time.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Demeatrias Stanford. We are so sorry to hear that your loved one has passed away. We will really miss his huge smile and big hugs that he gave us at church. We are praying for your family that God will give you strength at this time that seems to weaken all of us.

*"I will lift up my eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Stanford:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. May you gain comfort as you keep in mind: "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9.
God's Word assures us of a future when "death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). Our Heavenly Father is faithful and his invitation to us is: "Draw close to God and he will draw close to you." ~James 4:8.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)
