“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mrs. Demetria Neal Gibbs. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ May God's loving provision to raise up loved ones who have fallen asleep in death, comfort you all as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8)

“ Although I do not know Demetria personally I would like to offer my sincere condolences to her family and close friends. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah God of (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning your loved one Demetria who sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
