"My Last Request"

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.

Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.

Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.

Just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could, not do less

Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do

I want no more that I deserve, no extras, just my due.

Please don't give flowers, or talk in harsh tones.

Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God; I've made it home

Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done.

Just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won.

When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint,

I've done some good, I've put some wrong, so use all your paint,

Not just the bright and light tones, Use some gray and dark.

In fact, don't put me down on canvass, paint me in your heart

But if you must do something, then I have one last request

Forgive me for the wrongs I've done, and with love that's left

Thank God for my soul's resting

Thank God for all who love me

Praise God who loved me best
