“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. Demetrius L Wright. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8. For more bible answers, please go to jw.org

“ *Raynell,
You and your entire family are in my prayers. My heart is saddened for you and I Pray that God will wrap his loving arms around you and comfort you. I Pray that he will continue to keep you in his favor. My prayer for you is that he helps you to be strong and that you continue to lean on him. God is still Good and his Mercy is everlasting. Our meeting on the job was just a short time but, very pleasant, I will never forget you, I will always pray for you and that God will renew your strength.*

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Wright: When loved ones fall asleep in death, we gain comfort and hope as we consider God's provision to restore dead ones to life. God showed great love when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up dead ones when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember..."God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1)

“ We like to express our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Demetrius. When losing a love one it can bring great grief, but "the God of all comfort" gives us hope of a resurrection (Acts 24:15) what a loving promise. Soon we will be able to see our love ones again here on earth. (Psalms 37:29) Hope this bring you comfort during your time of grief.
