“ To Renee, Bernard, and the entire Moody family,

While you have lost a husband, father, and brother .. I have lost a true friend. Dennis was joy to be around. I will miss and forever remember our days in the choir, the Allgood Road Men's ministry, Phase 5, and, of course, our spirited discussions. I pray that God will allow the fondness of your memories with Dennis to soon outweigh your grief.

Let me know if I can help in any way.

God Bless,

Harvey Coppage and the Coppage family

“ My condolences to the Moody family at this time. Moody, brought many lives, families, relationships together . One way using basketball a sport that he loved. Team (All-Stars) Very much an inspiration to me and many for the fact of a great spirit; that always was positive. He left you with a smile every time, no matter what. When you knew ,he was bothered or upset; wouldn't show it. Full of jokes and if you got one up on him, he was determine to even the score. Lost a brother, a friend ,a God vessel because surely you could tell God flowed through him. Love you Moody . Love you fam.. Rest in heaven my brother.

“ The choir and Allgood UMC has indeed lost one of its most committed members in the passing of Brother Dennis Moody. Whether it was in reference to the church, the choir, or the men's ministry, Dennis consistent theme was people's committment. His wit and lighthearted personality was an inspiration not just to the choir, but to the church as well. In the past few months, Dennis and I established a wonderful friendship and brotherly bond. He always spoke a word of encouragement to me and was really a fun guy to be around. As usual, he treated me to Sunday dinner last week after church, and I'm eternally grateful for that memory of laughter and sharing. Although our paths crossed briefly, he made an indelible impact in my life. I bear and share with the Moody family in their time of loss and pray that God will comfort, strengthen, and give them peace in the days, weeks, months, and years to come.
