

Denroy Morgan Sr.

May 15, 1945 - March 3, 2022

Denroy Adolfus Morgan Sr. passed away March 3, 2022, at the age of 76, after a brief journey with cancer. While many know him as an international iconic reggae artist, his loving heart, contagious smile, and unrivaled personality are what those who knew him personally will remember and cherish.

Denroy was born on May 15, 1945, through the union of Cleveland and Una Morgan in Clarendon, Jamaica. He met the love of his life, Hyacinth, at the tender age of sixteen while working in his parent's "shop" in Spanish Town. It was love at first sight, and the two started a family shortly after meeting.

In 1965, Denroy migrated to the United States of America, where he single-handedly brought his parents, nine siblings, and later his wife and four children. In 1975, he had his Damascus road experience in a room in his parents' home. He famously calls this life-changing experience with the living God "his spiritual calling." During the 70's and 80's, his home on Cornelia Street in Brooklyn, New York, served as a location for members of the Twelve Tribes of Israel Rastafarian Organization to come together. His life mission was to enlighten the world with the message of UNITY. Most importantly he fought to see a world where the "lion and the lamb will lay down together."

In 1981, his hit song "I'll Do Anything for You" and album of the same name hit the Billboard chart topping off the R&B Top 10 chart. In that same year, he became the first Jamaican recording artist to be signed to a major record label-RCA. In 1992, he brought his children of the musical groups Morgan Heritage and L.M.S. to Jamaica, where they both performed on Reggae SunSplash. Immediately after their performances, M.C.A. Records offered to sign the Morgan Heritage to the label. In 2006, he began to pioneer the "All Mansion" campaign, which focused on unifying various Rastafarian Organizations and Christian communities worldwide. Under his leadership, he created the petition for the United Nations to make the Coronation Day of H.I.M. Haile Selassie I on November 2nd an international holiday.

A few of his most notable accomplishments include: being ordained as a Bishop to the International Gospel Helper Church in 2015; launching the Abrahamic Covenant Family Ministry; witnessing Morgan Heritage's Grammy win in 2016; receiving the key to the City of Brooklyn in 2021 from the current Mayor of New York, Eric Adams; and an advocate for the legalization of cannabis in Jamaica and around the world after years of advocating for the "healing of the nation."

Denroy is predeceased by his parents, Pearl Foster (mother of six of his children), son Sarid, brother David, and grandson Micheal Jr. He is survived by his "virtuous" wife Hyacinth Morgan, Gail Moses (mother of six of his children); twenty-nine children, who are nurses, educators, counselors, business executives, designers, and even a pastor. One hundred and five grandchildren, including actors, musicians, filmmakers, athletes, and a lawyer. In addition, Denroy leaves behind twenty-one great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, and five brothers and three sisters. His children will continue to honor his legacy by keeping God and family first.

“ I extend my deepest condolences to Mrs. Hyacinth and family in the passing of her talented husband Denroy Morgan. I have never met Denroy in person but his brother Wesley Morgan who is my best friend and confidante has shared with me how precious he was to his family. I do remember one of Denroy's hit songs from the 80's that we all use to dance to and that was "I'll Do Anything For You"! D J's are still playing his song across the country. In fact, a DJ at the Rickey Smiley Show just played it a couple of weeks ago at the comedy show. Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. Denroy is gone but will never be forgotten. Sending love to Wesley during this difficult time and the entire Morgan family.

“ Daddy always knew when I needed him most. When ask to appear at sine if the most important events in my professional life, he never hesitated. He gave me such comfort before he ascended. I will never forget when we both winked at each other using the same eye at the exact same time, He burst into laughter. I felt really good to make him smile as he was on his was to Zion. You will forever be with us and I'm truly grateful to Jah for allowing ne to come from your lineage. I vow to continue his legacy through educating those most in need. Love you forever Daddy!

“ A father is neither an anchor to hold us back nor a sail to take us there, but a guiding light whose love shows us the way. Dad, my mind still talks to you. My heart still looks for you. My soul knows you are at peace. He was a father. That’s what a father does. Eases the burdens of those he loves. Saves the ones he loves from painful last images that might endure for a lifetime. Denroy Morgan thank You for being part of my life. Although you have ascended to your maker, you forever remain in my heart. I love you always Dad and it is never a goodbye for I know you are still with me.
