“ Big Homie I'm still in disbelief!! I've known you since I was 12 years old! 1981! We had arguments, and we had good times! You taught me how to play Quarterback! I will never forget you family!! Rest In Power Big D!

“ We are sorry for your family loss. Continue to rely on on God and know that he hears your prayers, because he cares for you and want peace and comfort for your family. Thinking of you all.

“ Derrick, my world is not the same without you. There's one less light shining now that you're gone. I will never forget all the beautiful moments we shared. I will cherish those memories always. I know I can't call you anymore but I can still talk to you. I choose to believe you can hear me...and I can still listen to your last voicemail, (no one could say my name like you) and I can hear the laughter in your voice...I'm smiling now through the tears because I know you would want me to...rest easy, until we meet again. I will always love you...

“ The day we met we laughed, we hugged, I put my hand on your heart and you lit up like I have never seen anyone light up. Although our time together was too short, our trips to the grocery store, washing the car together and you telling exactly how to do it, our long phone conversations discussing the future, it was always and adventure. I am struggling with the fact you aren't here and I can't call you. What I do know is that you are the person you always wanted to be and will watch over us that are left behind to mourn your passing. I love you for the good hearted person, the laughs and the great conversations There will always be a special place in my heart for you. May perpetual light shine upon you.
