“ My condolences to the Dubose family. My heart grieve for you during these time of your sorrow. However, we do not grieve like those who have no hope. We know that absent from the body is present with the Lord. I pray you are comforted by these words. May God's peace rest upon you. Min. Jill Keeno

“ My most heartfelt and deepest condolences are extended to the Dubose family during these times and my prayers are with you all in the days too come. God makes no mistakes, he only takes those that are ready and I truly believe Deshon is there with Ms. Sara Edna and they're walking and talking about what Heaven will look like.

“ I am Deshon's Elementary Librarian Ms. Cannon and when DeShon was in 3rd grade he worked so hard to attend the top reader trip Camp Twin Lakes! He was so proud of that accomplishment! I loved him dearly and he always wanted me and the other Elementary staff members that he was still doing good in Middle School! We will miss his hugs and that beautiful smile! My prayers and deepest condolences are with you family! #LLD
