

Desiree Michelle Logan

August 5, 1962 - June 6, 2021

Desiree Michelle Logan, daughter of Wilbur Logan and Blanche Robinson Logan, was born on August 5, 1962, in Kings County, Brooklyn, New York. She peacefully gained her heavenly wings on Sunday, June 6, 2021 at her home in Snellville, GA. She was preceded in death by her nephew, Darryl Lamar Logan-Bland.

Desiree was a graduate of the class of 1980 at Park West High School, Manhattan, NY. She also attended Lehman College in Bronx, NY.

After residing in the Bronx for 14 years, in 1988 Desiree migrated to Portsmouth, VA with Clinton Matthews, where she attended beauty school and was an avid warehouse worker. Being the social butterfly she was, over the years, Desiree gained a host of friends that became family, most notably the White and Daughtry families. She also accumulated a host of god-children that she cherished greatly.

In 2002, Desiree was diagnosed with diabetes and moved to Snellville, GA to live with her sister and to be closer to her family. In Georgia she continued her career as a warehouse worker at Publix Distribution Center and Mud Pie Wholesale.

She developed a love for travel in 2020 after joining her beloved social club, Divas 2 Die 4, who support the Rarebreed MC Atlanta. She served as their Sergeant at Arms and was appropriately nicknamed Let's Go! The past year was among the happiest times of her life, and when it came to traveling to different events and functions, Desi was always ready!

Many of Desiree's family and friends benefitted from her free-hearted spirit and her gracious generosity. She leaves to cherish her memory, her father Wilbur Logan (Mary) of Charleston, SC; her mother Blanche Robinson Logan of Snellville, GA; her sisters Wanda Logan of Snellville, GA and Valerie Logan of Bergenfield, NJ; her nephews Jason Francis (Brittany) and Jamarl Francis both of Snellville, GA; her great-niece Jahtani Francis and great-nephew Jaylen Francis both of Snellville, GA; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, god-children, and friends
