“ Alicia, Stacey, Barbara we know that the passing of Devante is a pain that will reside deep in your hearts mind, but we hope GOD that resides in your soul will wrap around you and help you to endure the pain.

This news had a soul wrenching affect. Devante early years to young adulthood when I was in his presence he always was respectful and approachable, but even at this moment can still recognize that there was another element about his character that was calmly reassuring.

No matter the cause or the reason I am very sad to hear of his passing

“ Devante, we wish you could know the feelings of our hearts and how much we adored you and your beautiful soul. You always brought such joyful energy to us when you came around. We enjoyed the light of your heart, your smile, and your conversation. Wish we would have created more opportunities to be around each other. Our hearts are heavy and you'll be truly missed but we know that the Lord has you. Rest peacefully in paradise young king!

“ Alicia and Stacey my condolences go out to you all. I remember meeting Devante when my daughter Tauja and I starting coming to the hair salon were Alicia worked. He use to hang around my daughter and another young lady they were all around the same age. I never had to worry about my daughter being bored when she was finished getting her hair done before I did. He kept her and the other young lady entertained constantly laughing and joking. I am going to miss him. They were always just laughing and talking. Just a lovely young man.

Love

Jennifer and Tauja

“ We met Devante in 2000 when we moved across the street from his family. He was a fun little boy, I was known to him as Mr Perk. I watched him grow up from a boy to a man and saw him join the military and return home. Upon his return he was full of wisdom and ideas. He will surely be missed. Mr Reginald Perkins and family.
