

Dexter Wilson

November 18, 1974 - January 16, 2024

In Loving Memory of Dexter Vennis Wilson, Affectionately Known as "Poochie Man"

Dexter Vennis Wilson, affectionately called "Poochie Man," was born on November 18, 1974, to Brenda Christian. It is with heavy hearts that we announce Dexter's peaceful passing on Tuesday, January 16, 2024, leaving behind a legacy filled with love and laughter.

Dexter is preceded in death by his Grandmother Mildred Wilson and Grandfather Charlie Wilson. He is survived by his mother Brenda Christian, stepfather Gary Christian, sisters Mia Christian and Cedra Christian Kirkland (Champion) 3 nephews (Trevon, Champion Jr, Cayson) and cherished aunts and uncles, and a host of family and friends who will forever hold his memory dear.

Dexter never met a stranger; his warm and welcoming spirit endeared him to all who crossed his path. Known for his captivating storytelling, he had a knack for spinning tall tales about his adventures, leaving everyone around him entertained and smiling.

Above all, Dexter had a special place in his heart for the city of Decatur. He was a true Decaturite, having been part of Decatur city schools and later graduating from Towers High School. In downtown Decatur, he was a familiar face, and everyone knew him just as he knew everyone. His love for the city was infectious, making him a local legend in his own right.

As we bid farewell to Dexter "Poochie Man" Wilson, let us remember the joy he brought into our lives and the laughter that will forever echo in our hearts. May his spirit continue to weave tales of adventure in the great beyond.
