To my darling daughter, if love could've kept you you would never leave. You've been the joy of my life. I miss you even now but I know that you're not struggling to breath, you're not in pain anymore and that's what keeps me sane. I miss you like crazy and I love you even more. Rest in Heaven my beautiful Dianne

*To the Elmore family, I am at a loss of words as I type this and look at that beautiful picture of Dianne. The Elmore family has always had a special place ever since I met "Coach Mo" at a DeKalb County basketball gym and then he and his Queen Dianne brought 9 yr old Brea over to try out for the Lady Eagles AAU basketball club that I coached. Dianne set the bar for how a parent supports and pushes her kids. Maybe some call it tough love, but whatever one calls it you ALWAYS knew it was with Love that Dianne did everything! It's been a blessing knowing Dianne and the MVP Elmore family will always be have a special place in my heart. Thanks for being the Best Dianne.

“ To the family of Dianne, I extend my heartfelt sympathy and I am praying that God gives you peace during this time. I met Dianne and Stanley at Engle Martin and it always warmed my heart when I would see Dianne and Stanley eating lunch together. I also enjoyed talking about her daughter Brea, the college basketball player. I would see the excitement in Dianne's eyes when she talked about her plans to go to a game. Yes, I could tell Dianne loved and was proud of her children. To all who loved Dianne, may your love for Dianne bring you all together to comfort one another and know that others share in your grief.

Stanley and family my prayers are with you all. Matthew 11:28 says - Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Dianne fought long and hard and I trust believe that she is resting on the right hand of God.

“ My most heartfelt condolences are sent to Dianne's family. She was a remarkable woman, and I admired her greatly. She was devoted to her children and so proud of them. She was a talented professional and asset to Engle Martin. She fought so bravely, and she shall be terribly missed. May her beautiful family be comforted by memories of Dianne's love, warmth and courage, and by their support for one another. With compassion, Brucie Boggs

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of your beloved family member. Even though your hearts may be heavy with grief, please remember that our heavenly father also feels your pain of grief. Through his word the Bible he offers comfort to help us cope. Psalm 34:18 says; Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. Also the wonderful promise at Isaiah 25:8; He (God) will swallow up death forever. And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all faces. Because God “cares for you “(1Peter 5:7) he will help you to cope at this difficult time.
