“Dear Regine: I am sorrowing joyfully with you at the loss of your dear husband. I didn't know him well, but he had the kindest countenance. I enjoyed the few conversations I had with him and regret not having the chance to get to know him better. He obviously loved his Lord Jesus and served Him faithfully.

I know you are trusting the Lord for your future and looking toward the time when you and your husband will be reunited. Until then, I pray that we at Ivy Creek will have more opportunities to fellowship with you.

I trust you and your family will find sweet comfort with one another and with the Lord.
