

Dillon C. Stewart

October 3, 1997 - August 10, 2025

Dillon Chandler Stewart was born on October 3, 1997, in Decatur Georgia to his loving mother Chasity Watkins.

Dillon had a very close relationship with his family and was known as a “Granny’s Boy”. He spent his life in Georgia, attending McLendon Elementary, in Dekalb County, Shamrock Middle School, in Dekalb County, and Wheeler high School, in Cobb County. Dillon welcomed his first daughter into the world in May of 2019 and his second daughter in June of 2021. He was known for “bringing the laugh to the room” and being a protector and comforter to those he loved.

Dillon departed this life on August 10, 2025, at Emory Decatur Hospital. Left to cherish his life and memories are his 2 daughters Cassidy and Cassiah Britten, his mother Chasity Watkins, his sister Xoe Watkins, his grandparents Victor and Carolyn Watkins, his aunts Stacey Watkins and Dunsheen Weaver, his uncle Ricardo Watkins (Adrienne), cousins Cameron “McCain” Watkins, Carolyn “Cloudy with a Chance” Watkins, and Ricardo “Lil Rico” Watkins. Other family includes, Chiketa Diallo (Pierre), Collyn “The Pider” Watkins, Cquran “Moody” Watkins, Chanze “The Pants” Watkins, Deja “Mr. Ratburn” Diallo, Jada “Stace Face” Diallo, and Ayjah “Shicken Sherry” Diallo.

Dillon was preceded in death by his sister Cassidy Stewart.

His life was a blessing; his memory is a treasure.

"For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." - Romans 8:38-39

“ Dill! you were so loved . Such a beautiful and respectful young man loved by family, friends and all who grew to know him. Sending heartfelt Prayers of strength for the family and share the love with each other that Dill left along the way. You went to sleep and woke up in God's Garden of special flowers. Rest in his arms.

“ There are no words that can heal this terrible hurt which is in my heart. The only thing that gives me peace is knowing that God is in control and He is the author of life and dearh. Yes, His will have been done. I thank Him for allowing Dillon to be a big part of our family. Yes, he is and will always be Granny's Boy. He may be gone from my presence but he will always be in my ❤️.
