“ I met Don as a teammate on his softball team, where after games we would goto sports bars, grab some wings and hang out discussing a myriad of topics. I will miss the fellowship with Don, it's rare to find a sincere, genuine brother these days and he will not be soon forgotten. We were texting through out his battle and he responded quickly give me updates and talk about being back on the field some day...I knew something was not right when he didn't respond on my last text. I offer my deepest sympathy for his children and his wife.

“ I met Don through my cousin Wes. He was one of the coolest brothers I'd met since moving to Atlanta. It hurt my heart to hear of his passing. He was always so full of life even as he battled his illness. He will be missed.
