“ On behalf of the Gaddis family, our deepest sympathies go out to the Jolly family. I've always revered brother Jolly for his kind countenance and true love for God. As young children my daughters only had the most joyous of memories in regards him. What a light that has been lost here on earth, but shall yet shine eternally beyond. Brother Jolly will forever be in our hearts.

I met Don when he first started with IBM. We commuted to work together and moved to the same apartment complexes twice while in New York. That was 50 Years ago. During those years, Don was most consistent in his praise of God and love for the church. His Love for Linda, was right there, too. In almost fifty years, he never stopped praising her and giving thanks to God for putting her in his life. (this he would say to me many times without her being present).

Don's gave me the name of "Partner" and the reason is still with him. In 1998, I moved across the country, but we remained close as he was Best Man at my wedding in 2001. In 2017, he shared with me how much he appreciated our association and I had the chance to express to him, why he was my Best Man. I said to him that his faith in God defined him and it was impossible to know him well and not have it rub off. His faith allowed me to rediscover mine, and I had the chance to tell him.

Linda, please know in your heart that we are with you as you go through this journey.
