

Donald Augustus Perry

July 27, 2012

DONALD A. PERRY On Friday July 27, 2012 the Lord touched the life of His faithful servant Donald Augustus Perry at the age of 60. He was preceded in death by his parents, J.C. "Buster" and Oma Williams Perry of Valdosta, GA; and three brothers, Roman, Robert, and Leonard Perry. Donald served as vice president of public relations for the Chick-fil-A, Inc. where he was a dedicated executive for 29 years. He also served as a member of the Board of Trustees for The University of Georgia Arch Foundation. Donald was married to Marilyn Baker Perry. To this union three sons were born: Brandon (Iris), Jason (Summer) and Donald "Kris;" and grandson, Jason Alexander; four sisters: LaVerne Shiver-Carter (Sully), Mary Nell Bryant (LaBarfield), Linda Denton (Lonnie), Velma Miles (John); two brothers: James Jr. and Bernard (Sheena), and a host of precious family and friends. Home going services will be held on Wednesday, August 1, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. at Hillcrest Church of Christ where Donald labored as Elder. His remains will lie in state at the church from 9:00 a.m until the hour of service. The church is located at 1939 Snapfinger Road, Decatur, GA 30035; Brother Richard Barclay officiating. The family will receive friends on Tuesday, July 31, 2012 from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at the church. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting any donations in Donald's memory be made to the Hillcrest Church of Christ Building Program (1939 Snapfinger Rd., Decatur, GA 30035)."Most of all he was a committed Christian man, secondly he loved his family and third would have to be Chick-fil-A," said Jason Perry, the second of his three sons, who lives in Lithonia. "He loved the food, the people, the brand, all the way to Mr. Cathy himself."Mr. Perry spent the better part of 30 years in public relations for the Atlanta-based fast food chain, which suited him just fine, friends and family said.S. Truett Cathy, founder and chairman of Chick-fil-A, called Mr. Perry, "a vital part of Chick-fil-A and our growth for 29 years."He always had a smile and a cheerful spirit," he continued in a prepared statement. " I will dearly miss him."Donald Augustus Perry, called Don by most, of Lithonia, died suddenly Friday morning after experiencing medical distress at home. He was 60. A funeral is planned for 11 a.m. Wednesday at Hillcrest Church of Christ, Decatur. Burial will follow at Hillandale Memorial Gardens, Lithonia. Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory, South DeKalb Chapel, is in charge.At the time of his death, Mr. Perry was the vice president of corporate public relations for Chick-fil-A. Born in Clyattville, in Lowndes County, Mr. Perry graduated from University of Georgia's Henry W. Grady College of Journalism. He wanted to be a journalist, but took a job in public relations with General Electric after he graduated in the early '70s, his son said.In 1972 Mr. Perry married the former Marilyn Baker, and the couple would have celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary in September, their son said. As their family grew to include their three sons, Mr. Perry decided he wanted to get back to Georgia. His job at GE had taken them to Louisville, Ky., Fairfax, Va., back to Louisville and could have sent the family packing again, Jason Perry said."He interviewed with Coke and Chick-fil-A," his son said. "And he chose Chick-fil-A."Many who came into contact with Mr. Perry over the years recall his generous nature and warm smile.Glen Jackson, co-founder of Jackson Spalding, a local PR firm, said Mr. Perry's "love for others was so genuine. He was highly respected in our profession and will be deeply missed in our field."Susan Rosenberg, public relations director at UPS said, "Beyond Don's skills as a PR strategist and consensus builder, I just want to flag his friendliness and general good cheer to focus a meeting's attention with a gentle manner and humor."Jason Perry said his dad was perfect for the career he chose, adding, "My dad enjoyed people, he enjoyed making people smile, and he enjoyed presenting Chick-fil-A as a brand."The younger Mr. Perry said he often saw his father handing out cards for complimentary sandwiches."Whenever anybody did anything for him, he'd give them a card, invite them to Chick-fil-A and create a good customer experience for them," Jason Perry said. "I never saw him without those cards, and I knew where his stash was here in the house, so he always had some on hand."In addition to his wife and middle son, Mr. Perry is also survived by sons Brandon Perry of Lithonia and Donald "Kris" Perry of Atlanta; and one grandson.

Tribute Wall

BP

“ To the Family: May the God of all comfort continue to sustain you as you look ahead to the fulfillment of his promise recorded at John 5:28,29... The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out/ God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Isaiah 55:11, Revelations 21:3-5

Beulah Parks - August 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM