“ I offer sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Donna Batts. When loved ones fall asleep in death, we find comfort in God's loving resurrection provision. His Word promises: "the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5).

“ I extend my deepest sympathies to the family and friends of Mrs. Donna Batts. To lose someone in death is an experience that we can never truly be prepared for. The loss leaves a void in our lives that can never be filled. I have found at times such as these that the words from our Heavenly Father can be a source of encouragement. He tells us at both Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29 that he intends to resurrect our loved ones. We will be given the opportunity to welcome them back. What a joyous occasion that will be. We will not be welcoming them back to an Earth filled with the problems and issues they faced in the past but as Revelation 21:3,4 says "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a wonderful future for our deceased loved ones to look forward to. I truly hope the words and promises from our Creator, Jehovah, will sustain you and give you the strength you need to get through this difficult period.
