

Donna Jean Jackson

July 21, 1940 - February 1, 2024

With deep sadness, we announce the passing of Donna Jean Jackson who passed away on February 1st. Donna was a loving mother and ever-present grandmother. She was an avid gardener, talented seamstress, and craft enthusiast. She dedicated her life to those in need by giving her time to the Lilburn Co-op, St. Vincent de Paul, and Ruth's Table where she was known for her famous chicken salad cups. She had a tenacious will and faith. She will always remain in the hearts of her family and friends.

Donna is survived by her three daughters,

Christine Jackson

Beth Budrock

Mary Jackson

Four grandchildren,

Travis Perron

Barry Perron

Keith Jackson

Maddie Budrock

And nephew,

Daniel Jackson, Jr.

The Memorial Service will be held on February 9th at 2:00pm at St. John Neumann Catholic Church, 801 Tom Smith Road, SW. Lilburn, GA 30047. In lieu of flowers, please donate to your charity of choice.

“ My favorite memories of many with Donna in my high school years with Mary...Taco night, cross stitch'n and eating chicken biscuit crackers: me being so loud and bugging her as i loved to pester her and she would always yell at me "oh Gosh, Amy! Get outta here! You kids are gettin on my darn nerves!!"

“ I have fond memories of your mom, she was a big part of my teenage years. She was so talented. I still have her meatball recipe. She would get so mad at me for calling her to get the recipe every time I wanted to make it. She said “Write it down! “ but she always gave it to me. She will be missed. Keeping all of you in my prayer!
