“ I had known Lynn since we were kids growing up in Portland, Oregon. Lynn and I would have disagreements, but she would always speak her peace. Lynn was a great friend, whom I will miss and love always.

“ Thoughts of Lynn- She and Robin were close which made her my sister too. I remember the PAA locker room days where music played and Lynn broke out with "Saturday Night Fever" moves, good times. When my son was young, she and family were in town visiting. Lynn came over and snatched him from my arms like an auntie. She is heaven's gift.
Mom Taylor, Jeff, and family. I am thankful for the opportunity to know the gift of Lynn. Blessings family. Rest well Sis until that day!

“ I miss your smile. I miss your laugh. I miss hearing you say 'baby'. I miss everything about you DJ because the world isn't the same without you. Your spirit was so infectious and I'm so sad that you are no longer here. I'm happy though that you are at peace..no more pain... just laughing and smiling up in heaven. I love you my friend

“ My beautiful mommy, I miss you so much. Tge day you came into my life you took me under your wing as you child and Noone could tell you was my aunt. You raised me from that day on. You was always there no matter what time of the day it was. I would call u or text and you made sure you made it happen. Thank you for always being there for me and thank you for teaching and molding me into the woman I am today. I love you. Love Fat!!!

“ My dear Dijha,

I love you so so much. My life became blurry after mommy told us you passed. I wish I reached out to you more and sent you more pictures. I'm trying to press on but it's hard, there's not a day that I don't think about you, miss you, love you, or cry about you no longer being here. I know that you are no longer hurting and that you are finally at peace. I want you to know despite certain circumstances, we did love and adore you. Thank you for teaching me how to be a DIVA, I will FOREVER carry that with me. You are always on my mind and forever in my heart. I love you. ❤️

“ I still remember the first time we met Back in 1983 when you were roommates with Natalie. I can't believe you are gone. I still remember chuckling at your antics and thinking Jeff is so straight lace and you are so straightforward. My prayers go out to the family as they grieve. Remembering the family with prayers.

“ Donna 🌹 I'm going to miss you so much. You have been a Awsome sister/friend the past 20yrs. You always made sure I had that nasty garlic 🤢 & took care of my health. Your Energy & love for your family and others goes beyond any expectation. You were always there no matter the time or day. You always called to Check on me & Pray with me. I know you lit Heaven up with that Bright Beautiful Smile ❤️❤️

I just keep looking to the sky saying FLY HIGH Sis 🦋💕🦋🦋🦋
🦋🦋🦋🦋🦋🦋🦋FLY HIGH. 🙏🙏🙏🙏 I LOVE YOU DJ 🌹🌹
