“ I still think about Donna everyday. Another coworker of our mention that she had a dream that Donna came to her as a beautiful yellow butterfly. Now when I'm outside around my pond and see a butterfly I think about her. Coming to work was enjoyable when I knew when I get there we would talk about the Nephew Tommy phone pranks and the strawberry letters.

Donna use to eat those small tomatoes as if they was candy and I used to be like how you eat that entire basket of tomatoes and she would say because I know I have another basket of them at the house... lolol.. Her eyes would LIGHT up when she ate those tomatoes..

Donna was so classy, clean, sooo neat, smart, funny and had this laugh that made the other coworkers to tell us to keep it down...

Going to her desk felt like we were too teenagers who talked all day. We really enjoyed each other company.

I remember one day I came to her office and she asked me, "Andre, do you know my name..." and I was like what you mean and she said, "exactly what I said do you know my name because you never call me by my name." I was like yes Donna and we laugh sooo hard because for that one second she made me think that I never did call her name out loud, we just immediately start talking every time we seen each other. I loved her she was a beautiful person inside and out and I miss her sooooo much....

“ Donna and I was great friends, we spoke everyday for hours, shared funny stories about our families and friends. She was a great person, very open, honest, kind, love to smile and laugh all the time. It hard to understand how to feel knowing that your close friend is gone. She will be missed but never forgotten.

“ I met Donna in 2014 when I worked at Gwinnett Medical Center. Whenever I needed to get something off my chest, I would stand in her doorway and ask if she was busy. She would laugh because she knew I was about to fuss about something. Donna and I laughed at each other quite a bit. I will miss that.

I'm glad we kept in touch after I moved on to another job. We met for lunch and dinner a few times, and I attended a church service with her. I had not seen Donna since Feb. 2019, but I continued to check in every couple of months to see how she was doing and to let her know how I was doing.

Rest well my funny friend.

“ My condolences to all family members. Donna was my classmate at Waycross High School. We had a few classes together during our high school years. She was one of the smartest in our graduating class. She inspired me to do even better and we both were in the top 10% of our graduating class (Senior Superlatives) and I do remember taking a picture with her and another classmate in the yearbook. I wish we had stayed in contact with her but both of us were pretty quiet. I'm sure she will be missed by many because I'm sure she inspired others as well.
