“ Five generations and 94 years later, you have said your final goodbye. Born in 1928, you persevered through some tough times, and you were a remarkable influence in our lives. You were always in the mix, and like that Thanksgiving dressing, you can never be replaced. Through my tears, and in all of my sadness, I smile because I'm sure you and Chandler have teamed up once again causing all sorts of laughter and good natured foolishness.

*With never ending love,
Your only granddaughter,
Antoinette*
