“ Ms. Doreen D'Aguiar was with our 2 daughters from 1977 until they started nursery school/kindergarten. It was indeed a pleasure for her to take care of Ayana and Ngina.

I never had to worry while away. We will all miss her very much.

I met Mrs Doreen and her family when I moved to her neighborhood in 1999. I adored Mrs Doreen!!! She was wonderful to me and my family, and watched my young daughter for me. Being from the Caribbean, I appreciate a good cup of sorrel and no one made it like Mrs Doreen. God bless her and rest her!

“ Beautiful service today for a beautiful lady!
When you were speaking, some of those phrases sounded just like Ms. Doreen.
Glad you guys were all able to make it today, she would have loved seeing everyone together

“ Here we are again...that old familiar place...where the wind will blow, no one ever knows the time or space....." It's your time Aunt Girlie. It's bitter/sweet...bitter because you're no longer here with us, but sweet because you gave us all such sweet memories.

A kind and loving lady you were. When we met you welcomed us with open arms and a huge smile. You gave us love and caring just as you did your own children. You took care of my child as if she was your own....yes...in a way she was. THANK YOU sweet Doreen D'Aguilar. Trudy and I will never forget you.

Sleep on sweet Aunt Girlie...no more pain. We'll see you up yonder!!

“ Ms. Doreen D'Aguilar was a wonderful, kind and supportive person. She was always ready to offer suggestions of solutions to family and friends. A great mother, grand mother, Aunt, sister and just a great family person. I had the privilege of observing her care for her late husband Lloyd D'Agiilar and all her wonderful children. She had a special sensitivity for caring for her grand children and those from the extended family. She would nurture and feed them well with teachings of good discipline. Aunt Girlie as she was affectionately called was just a beautiful, loving and kind person who will be sorely missed by all who knew her. walk good Aunt Girlie and say hello to Uncle Lloyd for me and us. May God bless your sole and may light perpetually shine up you among the other angels in heaven. Love in abundance Auntie. Gee

“ It's the morning of your burial mom. You've been on my mind all night. I know you are at peace in your forever slumber. Know that your family WILL be fine.

Love Dawn

The Dash Poem by Linda Ellis

*I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend
He referred to the dates on the tombstone
From the beginning...to the end*

*He noted that first came the date of birth
And spoke the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between those years*

*For that dash represents all the time
That they spent alive on earth.
And now only those who loved them
Know what that little line is worth*

*For it matters not, how much we own,
The cars...the house...the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.*

*So, think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left
That can still be rearranged.*

*If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real*

*And always try to understand
The way other people feel.*

*And be less quick to anger
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.*

*If we treat each other with respect
And more often wear a smile,
Remembering this special dash
Might only last a little while*

*So, when your eulogy is being read
With your life's actions to rehash...
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent YOUR dash?*

“ Auntie Doreen you will me miss by your family and friends. I will miss our talks. You love Christmas and putting up you Sant and decorations. You love to sing to me over the phone. Doris Day Que Sera Sers (whatever will be, will be) Patti Page (How much is that doggie in the window). Although we never met, I know you through our conservations. If we never met on earth, we will meet in the heavenly father den. Rest in eternal peace auntie.
