“ The first of my family I met upon returning home to Georgia was both Robert and Doris. The hospitality and love shown to my wife and I was a point I will always recall and remember through the duration of my love. Love both of you until I am unable to no longer love. And thank you with all of our prayers love and respect. Charles & SurRonda Holliman..(aka: maconman)

“ Shirley (Juston) Hall

It is with heartfelt sympathy we offer our condolences to Robert and the family on the passing of "Dot". I remember Dot always making herself available for her family no matter the occasion. I saw her come to Detroit often in support of her family whom she lived so much. She will be greatly missed.

“Dot, you will be missed and are deeply loved. I remember as a young child the family driving to Georgia and pulling up to Wesley Chapel Road and you and aunt Annie giving us the warmest greeting. I loved those family gathering it was those memories which helped formulate in my mind what a family truly is. The laughter and family togetherness will always be timeless moments that I'll cherish forever. As a humble servant of the lord I embrace your memory and thankful for the opportunity to have you in my life and glad I was able to be with you in spirate with Robert as you go on to your next journey... We will see each other again... Love Kenneth Kidd and family.

I will always have fond memories of my friend. When my mother was ill, Doris always provided me with Delta passes to travel to Baltimore MD to visit until her death. Thank you Doris, you was always a quiet, kind person with a sweet spirit. Rest now in God arms
