“ To the Mitchom family:

I would like to express my deepest heartfelt condolences and prayers to you all. I remember Mrs. Doris so well and often think of her and reminisce about our days at Calvary Missionary Baptist Church. She was in charge of the children and made sure that we rehearsed our lines.....whether we were in a Christmas or Easter play, or reciting our speeches. My brother Eddie Jr. (aka Flip) and I loved Mrs. Doris! I had been told a time or two that I am similar to her! That was such a huge compliment! She was always so poised and had so much class. Again, my prayers are with you all during your time of bereavement.

Thoughts and Prayers,

Le'Shawn Chandler-Spruiell

“ Tribute to a Queen
Doris Towner Mitchom
Jan 14, 1943 - May 1, 2021

I write this tribute for the following five reasons:

♥ When I was a child, you spent time with me. You picked me up to attend church drama rehearsals. Sometimes, we would sit together during Worship Service at Calvary. You were always soft spoken, kind and gracious.

♥ When I was a teenager, you picked me up in a brand new Rolls Royce, took me to a fine dining restaurant in St. Louis and blew my mind when you and Mr. Mitchom took my entire family and me to Disney World. In the midst of all of your wealth, you remained meek and humble.

♥ When I was college bound, you paid for my college tuition, books and expenses.

♥ When I was a young adult, I came to visit you in Atlanta and you showed unconditional love to Golden and me.

♥ When I saw you two years ago as a senior adult , we sat next to each other laughing and reminiscing about the good ole days. I've never seen you angry!

You were the best Godmother on this side of Heaven and I will never forget you. As I'm writing this tribute to you, tears are forming.....I love you Doris.....

I know we will see each other again.

Save a seat for me. ♥

“Cousin Doris was the queen and matriarch of her family. I will forever be thankful that you found the Harris Branch of the family tree and one of your favorite older cousin, my dad Bishop Clyde Harris, in the attached photo together. I know that the pandemic era along with your respective illnesses kept y'all apart but now I know my daddy is out of that wheelchair and dancing with Jesus along with you. Praise the Lord! As my paternal grandfather, Lee Harris, Great-niece you blessed me with a lot of our family history. I acquired a wealth of history back in the 1990's from your precious Aunts, the Towner sisters, down in Pace Mississippi when I began my family genealogical research the old-fashioned way (before computers) 😊 Only our Heavenly Father could have orchestrated our predestined appointment here in Georgia in recent years. I never would have dreamed that 5 months after laying dad to rest that you would be going home to meet the Lord, as well, as having your final resting place in the same beautiful military cemetery as Daddy. We will all keep both of your legacies alive. Thank you for gracing me with your wisdom, love and family values, as well as our history. Praying for those that you left behind that God will heal their broken hearts and give them peace in the days, weeks, months and years ahead as he is doing for my family. Love, Cousin Dana Harris Carter, McDonough Georgia❤️❤️
