“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer sincere condolences to you all. Please keep in mind: "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1). He made a provision to restore dead ones to life when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Continue to trust in God's loving promises as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29).
