“ Sending love, condolences and prayers the the Clark-Banks family. Words cannot express the pain I felt when I heard to the passing of one of my :Church Moms at Fort Street United Methodist Church. I grew up in the this church and Ms. Banks was one on the leaders in the church that helped groomed a lot of the young girls in the church. She always shared wisdom, love and encouragement with that beautiful smile. She is the person that ask me in being the Chairperson of our Church Council, she was also responsible for being on the Church Endowment Committee and well as supporting me when I was the Finance Chair as she was a part of as well. She and my husband, Wesley Brown Jr, had a special bond and she loved us both. Ms. Banks is one of a kind truly a women of purpose, lead by God. You will dearly missed but never forgotten, your legacy will live on forever.

*With Love,
Mary and Wesley Brown*
