“ We will miss you. You know you were my road dog.. We had so may memories and laughs together from picking up man and going to the thrift shops. You could really find things that I couldn't and if I would say you could open the doors at the thrift and close them too. You were just like my second mom, mentor, motivator, and prayer partner when I needed you. I know you are in heaven preaching your butt off. I will be up there one day with you. I will always cherish the memories of you and I. Death has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal.....

“ Hi everyone today I am wearing a dress Dot and I bought alike for a very special occasion in 1983, and it still fits!!! It was one our many shopping sprees when we bought matching clothes some thought we were twins LOL!!!! We called ourselves almost twins, growing up mom dressed us alike,she made most of our clothes which were beautiful!!!! that is how we became lovers of beautiful clothes.Our dad mostly picked the fabric because he had the eye for what would look good on his girls whom he loved very much and mom agreed most of the time, ere go beautiful dresses especially on Sundays!!! So in memory of our parents and honoring the love of my almost twin sister.

I love you Dot!!! God bless your memory and our family please keep us safe and in love.

“ God Bless our family as we celebrate the home going of our dear sister, mother, grand mother, great grandmother, great great grandmother all our extended family friends and all our lov ones. My prayer today is for comfort peace and a sense of closure and we are all suffering a huge loss today, we must hold on tightly to god's unchanging hand to minimize our hurt feelings, hang on to the thoughts she left us with of family love peace and God's abiding grace. Love to yo you all God's richest blessings. Aunt Nancye and Uncle Lew Lew

“ to My beautiful sister whom I loved and tried to protect from the day you were born,I will miss you terribly, but always carry your cherished memories in my heart.

. You have left a void in my life no one can ever fill.I miss you terribly even though we were apart in miles we were always joined by the heart strings, from birth until now.The memories linger how precious they are!!!!

Yes, I will always pray for our family that you kept blanketed in prayer, I know that is the baton you passed on to me. I will do my best, no one could pray like you.!!(smile).

I will do my best to support and encourage Toni,we will try to console each other not replace or substitute you are irreplaceable.I will try to keep our family together because I know that is what you have always wanted.I LOVE and miss you,say hello to mom and dad and all the others.Tell them "we are striving to make it in".

Because of your love of Jesus and telling everyone who would listen as soon as you could standing on your soap box learning to talk. I will miss your loving, beautiful smiles and sermons.

I was so proud to be your sister!!!!If I had picked you myself I would not have done such a great job,God knew what we each needed and provided the perfect match. So long my almost twin!!! see you there in the loving arms of Jesus!!!!!!
