“ I had the pleasure of meeting the Blackwells in 1972 when we were neighbors. Mrs Blackwell accepted me as one of her sons. I spent many days and nights at their house eating and playing and did I mention eating lol. See I had three sisters and Marvin and Stanley became my brothers. I guess my fondest memories of Mrs Blackwell was the trip to Elberton ga were I got my real first taste of country living. As a child I didn't like take a bath lol but in elberton ga everybody took a bath. So into the number 10 wash tub I went lol. She made sure we all took a bath that night holding a switch and threatening to whoop us. You will truly be missed. My condolences to Mr Blackwell,
Stanley , Marvin and the family.
