“ Our hearts are saddened by the loss of our dear Sister Dorothy, but we also have joy in the fact that God allowed our path to cross. She is thought of with great fond memories with her loving smile and kindness that was shown to our family. We had great times in the choirsinging praises to the Lord. Dorothy will surely be missed, but God has received a very sweet flower. May God continue to strength the family as you go through your time of loss. Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal. Remember the Joy that she has brought to your lives. God bless each one of you.
