“ Dear Jesse, When you called with this sad news the other night, Neal and I remembered when Dot came into your life, and how happy your mother was. You could tell Miss Lizzie knew that Dot was the one for you, and time has proven her right once again. You had fifty four wonderful years together, and that is a tribute to you both. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Dorothy Bailey Dixon. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ Dear Family, I worked with Mrs. Dixon at Avondale High School for years and loved her dearly. She and I were in the Vocational Department together and worked across the hall from each other. We had lunch together often. She was a wonderful person and I am sure she is in Heaven today. I grieve with you. Jean Wilks

“ To the Family and Friends, Though I know that this is a difficult time for you my hope is that when the time is right for it, you might allow yourself to be comforted by the hope found in God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Rev 21:3,4. These give hope of both a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death, pain and mourning to be accomplished under Jesus' Kingdom rule. (1Cor 15:24-26) We have this and much more to look forward to. For more scriptural encouragement please go to: (Read the bible aid.. “ To the family and friends of Mrs. Dorothy Bailey Dixon: My condolences for the loss of your loved one. It is never easy when we lose someone we love to death. But God provided his inspired Word, the Bible, so that we may find hope and comfort in the Scriptures. At Job 14:14, 15 it says: If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning. Job said that when he died, he would wait for God to resurrect him because he had a yearning for the work of his hands. God also has a yearning to resurrect your loved one when the time comes for the dead to return to life, and may we all look forward to that time. For more information, please visit jw.org.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. I offer encouragement and comfort from the Scriptures. God's Word promises: Your dead ones will live.... They will rise up. ~Isaiah 26:19. God empowered Jesus to raise several dead people to life when he was on the earth. This provides evidence that Jesus' words recorded at John 11:25 will be fulfilled in the future. Jesus promised: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. Continue to draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you. ~James 4:8.
