“ Dear Pinkston Family; While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one. Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well. Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline; When Death is Swallowed Up Forever..... What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away. What a comforting hope. If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitle What Hope for Dead Loved Ones? If you have any Questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com). I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family. Sincerely Yours, Brandy Molina

“ To the family of Dorothy Pinkston, my deep and sincere condolences on the lose of your loved one. It has been my pleasure to have known Dot for many, many years. I have worshipped with and worked with her at Mt Zion. Also participated/worked with her in the NAACP. Dependable, dedicated and hardworking were just a few of her fine qualities. Those of you that have Christ in their lives be prepared to see her again. This is not goodbye, simply see you later. She will be missed in her church as well as the community. May God comfort, strengthen and keep you is my prayer during your time of bereavement. Jacqueline Griswell Radcliffe

“ To the Pinkston Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. When the time is right, please look up the following scriptures in your copy of the Bible—John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. We can have faith in what the Bible says because our God, Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie.. (Hebrews 6:18.) Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples..Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep. This helps us to know that your loved one is sleeping as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead. “ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God’s word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God. (2Cor 1: 3 & 4)

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Dorothy. It's so sad to lose a love one in death. We look forward to the near future when Gods Kingdom (mentioned at Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind. Under that Kingdom no resident will say I am sick. (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no death nor tears. (Revelation 21:3,4) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) Draw close to our Heavenly Father God in prayer during this difficult time. Gods word at Philipians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead.
