“ My sincere condolences to the family of Dr. Leonardo Johnson. I am truly sorry for your loss. I hope that you may continue to be strengthened and comforted from our Heavenly Father. He holds out such wonderful promises concerning our departed loved ones. At John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 he assures us that we will be able to see them again. May his words and the love of family and friends continue to give you the comfort you will need each day.

“ To the Family and Friends of Dr. Johnson:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer Scriptural encouragement to you all. God is faithful and He promises: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection of ones asleep in death when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Continue to "draw close to God and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8)

“ We are sincerely sorry for the loss of Leonardo Johnson. He was a great person and was very loving man and best friend to my sister, Gail, her son, Dio and my daughter, Adrienna. He made them laugh with his humor, he spent lots of time with all of us when they were little children. He had lots of determination to excel in his college endeavors. He will surely be missed. He is on his next journey and is at peace. May his family be cradled in the love of their God.
