“ Michelle,
My prayers are with you and the family. Thank God Dwayne left his legacy in little Josiah. Only you and you alone can tell baby Josiah about the wonderful marriage you and Dwayne had and the love you shared. I can still remember the day you two were married and what a beautiful couple you were. I will never forget the smile that was always on Dwayne's face and how friendly and humble he was.

I will continue to pray your strength in the Lord so that you can continue to take care of precious little Josiah. Please know that I love you and if and ever you need me, I will be here for you.
Love,
Mother Inez Robinson

“ Coach Dwayne:

Michelle I can't believe I'm writing this about your Dwayne. He was the one young man that I just can't see myself writing about at this time. The first time we he was wearing cast in Birmingham 2001 Wren Family Reunion. I recall his words of hope and reassurance at the late Supt. Jimmy Wren Memorial 10/21/07. I am so glad that God sent Dwayne into your life. While as a man he was seeking a wife. While God being God, was calling him and used Michelle as the calling card. His bright smile and competitive nature in the family reunion softball games. Though competitive his light still beamed I belong to God.

Auntie Emma your late Aunt really got a kick out of Coach D. coaching in 2017. Kicking up dust playfully like the Yankee Great Billy Martin. I remember when he greeted me it was always Mister Earl. The news of Dwayne leaving us so suddenly is still hard to digest.

Michelle the same God that gave you Dwayne and Josiah. Great is Thou FAITHFULNESS!!!!

“ Dwayne, I just can't believe this is real. I am so sorry, but I know where you are. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I know you love the Lord and your wife, and I saw on your videos that you truly adored Josiah. I can see you now walking down the halls of Bard/BD, tall and proud. You had a smile that lit up a room, and your positive attitude and happy spirit gave us all life. You will truly be missed. I will always keep Michelle and Josiah in my prayers. We all will see you again in our Glorified bodies.

“ I've never met him before but I followed him on social media. The love he displayed for his wife and son was amazingly heartfelt. I'm in such disbelief that such a beautiful person is gone. My deepest condolences to his wife and son, I pray you can, by the grace of God make it through this trying time.
