This was Dwight's 3rd day on the job. He found out the team was walking and needed someone to serve water at the end. He was in a suit, but changed shirts and jumped right in.

What you don't see in this photo is he is wearing dress pants and fine dress shoes, AND...it was hot!

This is the kind of guy Dwight was. He touched us all.

Dear family and friends of Dwight Wills,

Dwight worked with me at the State of Georgia. In fact, I was part of the team that hired him to work at the Department of Administrative Services / Human Resources Administration.

The decision to hire Dwight was easy. We had over 200 applications for the one job. Dwight made every cut and finally ended up interviewing for the position. The team interviewed 12 applicants for the job, but there was only one EXCELLENT person for the job, Dwight.

He spoke of making the job a long term career. He wanted to stay with one employer for a long time. He found that home and a work family to go along with it.

Dwight was very committed to his job and understood that his job impacted over 80,000 employees in the State. He took this responsibility very serious, but he always had time for anyone that needed him. In fact, he was known throughout the State offices as someone you wanted to get to know.

I have been in the business world for over 35 years and Dwight blended talent with kindness as well as anyone I have ever known.

We will miss him.

Our prayers to Eve, Elise, Gabby and Dwight's extended family and friends.
