

Dylan Ryan Clark

January 24, 2008 - June 14, 2025

We celebrate the beautiful and courageous life of Dylan Ryan Clark, who passed away unexpectedly on June 14, 2025, at the tender age of 17. Dylan was a joyful ball of energy displaying strength and determination since entering this world at just 24 weeks. Dylan left an unforgettable impact on everyone who had the honor of knowing him.

Born on January 24, 2008, in Decatur, Georgia, to Shante' Johnson & Dontavious Clark, Dylan was immediately surrounded by love. The love never faded in his short 17 years with us. He was the happiest when surrounded by his family, friends and classmates. His smile could light up any room and his laughter was contagious.

Dylan is survived by his parents, Shante' Johnson and Dontavious Clark; his grandparents, Shonda & Steven Burnette, and Francine Montgomery, his aunts and uncles, Safarah & Steven Burnette, Jr., Deanna Watson (Cory), Maria Washington (Willie), Terrance Davis, his sister Dania Clark, and many great aunts, uncles, cousins and family friends.

A funeral service to honor Dylan's life and legacy will be held on Saturday, June 21, 2025, at 11:00 AM at Sylvester Baptist Church, 2261 Bouldercrest Road SE, Atlanta, Georgia 30316. Dylan will be laid to rest at Kennedy Memorial Gardens, 2500 River Road, Ellenwood, GA 30294 and a reception to celebrate Dylan's life will follow at 1303 Columbia Drive , Suite D, Decatur, GA 30032 where friends and family are invited to share their stories and memories.

Dylan Ryan Clark was the embodiment of JOY. Though he left us too soon, the light he brought into this world will continue to guide and comfort us.

“ Shante,
We were so sorry to hear of Dylan's passing. I just remember what a good mother you were to him and how attentive you were to his needs. I enjoyed meeting him at Pats anniversary celebration. He was a joy to be around. I called him my little boyfriend. God has picked a beautiful flower. Praying that you and your family somehow find peace through the help of GOD!

“ From the time you were born, you were determined to leave your mark on this life. I remember when your grandmother called to say you were arriving early. I was filled with both worry and excitement. We had recently relocated to North Carolina, and during that time, your grandmother and I remained very close. Even as I began adjusting to life with a little one of my own, our bond stayed strong. We continued sharing family stories, love, and laughter, no matter the distance.

Even from afar, I could feel how special you were. To everyone who knows and loves you, there's no doubt you made a lasting impact. You were deeply loved, especially by your family. We'll miss your bright smile and unforgettable energy.

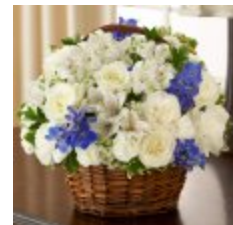

We love you, Dylan.

“ Shante, when you talked about your son Dylan your eyes would sparkling full of Love. You shared with me Dylan loved LIGHTS, and most of our Dylan conversations would be about his love for sparkling lights. Dear heart please keep in mind God made no mistakes when he Blessed you with your Son Shine. Dylan was truly the Sparkling Light of you and your family life. Losing a son, especially one who was the light of your life is a painful experience.

“ I was sadden when I heard about the passing of Dylan. He was a kind hearted young man. If he was in the room you would know he was there. My Bible tells me to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. God doesn't make any mistakes and now he is resting with the Lord. We don't have to weep like those who have no hope. We will be able to see him in the morning. RIP Dylan you will be missed but never forgotten

“ Our heartfelt sympathy in the passing of Dylan,. There are so many fond memories of him over the many years. He had so much love to share, so many hugs, so many smiles. To Shante, Shonda, Steve, Safari, Steve, Jr. & the entire family, asking God to watch over each one during these difficult days. Continue to hold onto his unchanging hand. Allow his shoulder to be the one you will lean on, his hand to be there to wipe your tears, and his arms to be there for you to hold onto.
