“ Earl’s father and my husband were cousins but were raised in the same house like brothers. I held Earl in my arms many times as a baby and for years watched him grow. May he Rest In Peace. My condolences and God’s blessing to each and everyone of you. 🙏

“ I have fond memories of going by his home to service his air-conditioning equipment and our conversations always turned to spiritual reflections. He loved the Lord and inspite of all that he was going through, he would always praise the name of Jesus. I'm going to miss those conversations, may you rest in preparation for a better day ahead.
