“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Earl Walker. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends. It is heart rending to lose someone you love but the Bible comforts us by promising that there is going to be a resurrection to life in the near future. John 5: 28, 29 holds out this hope. At Revelation 21:3-5 Jehovah God faithfully promises that tears and pain will soon be a thing of the past. I hope these Bible passages provide you with much needed comfort during this difficult time.

“ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family and friends of Mr. Earl Walker. When loved ones fall asleep in death, we can gain comfort when we keep in mind that God has made a loving provision to restore dead ones to life. Jesus promises: I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. ~John 11:25. God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Revelation 21:3-5.

“ To the Family of Earl Walker, I offer my sincere condolences. We are never truly prepared to say goodbye to our loved ones. We can take comfort in the words of our Heavenly Father and the promises he gives at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. He tells us that we can see our loved ones again under better conditions. These issues such as sickness and death that plague mankind will be things of the past. What a wonderful hope he extends to us all. I hope his words will give you the strength to endure during this difficult period.
