“ I will always cherish our long conversations. We could talk on the phone for hours. Some kind of way, there was always something that made us laugh so hard that we could hardly breathe. It didn't matter what the subject (funny , sad, or otherwise) laughter always showed up. Mom absolutely loves her family! At family reunions you could point out any relative and she would tell you exactly how you were related. I called her the "oral historian," because she was so precise and so detailed. Mom, you'll forever be in my heart. I love you ❤️🌸

“ She had a smile that lit up the room. She was warm, humble and kind. She was not given to extravagant agendas but found comfort in the simple things in life. This wonderful woman was full of life, I am thankful that it was shared with me and others. Mom was wise in many ways, a diamond so to speak. In the midst of challenges she was one of my closest and dearest friends. On this journey during her treatment it was painful seeing her go through. Yet, in spite of it all I've also seen the goodness of the Lord.

I am so thankful to Jesus for being on this journey with me, and with us. Thank you for your patience, for allowing closure and for giving comfort in time of sorrow. Even in mom passing away I have felt the gentle and kind love of Jesus Christ. I am in awe of His ways that surpasses those of man. I rest assured in his care knowing that He's been with me all along. I will miss mom but I have rest in The Lord and I truly believe that she is resting now.

Amen, this is Jennifer Jones formerly of New York State Unified Court System, Queens Civil Courthouse. I remember your mother always mentioned your name to me when I would sit with her on my lunch hour for hours just sharing in the holy spirit. Earline was a great comfort to me thru all I was going thru. She always, always, always, kept a smile on her face. I still can hear her southern voice saying " Well, hello Jennifer how are you?" I never knew she was sick, but I am comforted knowing that she was always heaven bound. My sister in Christ, I will see you again. Thank you, for being you.

“ I extend sincere condolences to you all. Keep in mind; "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1). His Word promises: "Your dead wil live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25).
