“ I was thinking a lot about my mama today. Mamá has been gone 4 months today. My heart still aches. I miss my mommy.

“ It has taken me some time to gather my thoughts and write in memory of my beloved grandmother, Earnestine Cade, as doing so means confronting the reality that she is no longer with us. I can no longer visit her home and see her sitting in her favorite spot on the couch, turning to greet me with her warm smile and saying, "hi baby." Our cherished one-on-one moments while I styled her hair are now just memories, filled with the wisdom and gentle insights she shared. As a child, she would make me oatmeal with cinnamon, sugar, and butter every morning before school, a tradition I've carried on for my own children. Her nurturing love and care were profound and unmistakable. Just two weeks before she passed, she sent me a heartfelt text. Although she often reached out, this message felt different—it was filled with pride for who I had become. The Bible states, “Even to your old age and gray hairs I am he; I am he who will sustain you” (Isaiah 46:4). Earnestine embodied this promise, serving as a pillar of stability and security for us in various situations. Through her example of positive values, ideals, and beliefs, she became a role model for her grandchildren, imparting important lessons and life skills that we carry with us. I will forever miss you grandma, as will your great grands. But I will hold you close in my heart until we meet again.

Love You Forever

“ Miss Earnestine was my mother, Leola Cane very dear friend. My heart goes out to her family during this difficult time. I know how much she meant to her family, and I am thinking of you all during this time of grief.

“ My sister, Stine, always saw the best in everyone. She taught me how to be gracious, kind, and understanding. Not only was she beautiful, but she was wise and kind to everyone she met. She loved her family, her children, her grandchildren, and her great grandchildren. She will be truly missed. I love you, my sister. Cherry.

“ Pictures of Me (Iysis), Grandma Earnestine and my auntie Chantee, taken on February 17th 2025. I am forever grateful for my aunt who brought her to see me at my college a month before she passed. My grandma told me she was proud of me which meant so much and I got to take this last picture with her that I will forever cherish.

“ She was not only my mama but also my hero, my confidant, my conscience, and friend.

Her wisdom, compassion, and unwavering faith shaped me, leaving behind a legacy of love and strength.

The moral compass she instilled in me will continue to guide my path, and her spirit will forever live in my heart.

My admiration for her is profound, and my desire to honor her memory by embodying her virtues is my tribute to her. Though the pain of her absence is great, the promise of seeing her again brings me comfort. Mama, until the resurrection. I love you. 🥰

“ *Ever-giving, with a heart so true,
A guiding light in all we do.
Remembering others before her own needs,
Nurturing souls with kindhearted deeds.
Endless wisdom, gentle and wise,
Shining with love in her caring eyes.
Thoughtful in words, selfless in deeds,
Illuminating lives like sunlight through trees.
Never too busy to comfort or mend,
Ever our mother, sister, and friend.*
