“ To The Family,

Our deepest sympathy to Ernestine's family. May God presence be with you'll.

You could tell Ernestine was so proud of her daughter and grandson. She smiled when she talked about you. She was a wonderful person to know.

Roy and I will miss seeing her smiling face every Sunday at Capitol Drive Lutheran Church

“ To all those who loved and were blessed by Ernestine!

She was one gracious person who lit up every room that she entered. Her sense of prayer and care for all those around her also was a blessing for those of us who knew and interacted with her. When we prayed at the Gathering Place, she was always ready to pray for all of us and the community in which we live. She was spot-on for whom she was praying her sense of what we all should pray about.

And when it came time for community celebrations, she was the life of the party. Our major holidays and holy days were times for all of us to gather; she visited with everyone, wished everyone well, and finally, she spread cheer throughout the whole room.

She was the penultimate mother of her two children. Always talking about their years together and so proud of both her son and daughter. They were the best!

Trust me, there's not a week when folks don't ask me how she was doing in Atlanta. I looked forward to her calls and, of course, talking Packers. Can't think of Ernestine without saying something about her love for her beloved Pack! She was one of those true Green and Gold fans. A loss was two days of mourning--a win was a week of celebrating and getting ready for the next game. God, St. Peter, Jesus, all the saints, etc. better get ready for Packer Time each week in the fall!

May she rest in peace; we know that she is in her Creator's arms!

Ms. Ruffin was one of the sweetest lady that I met. She was very proud and eager to share stories of how proud she was of her children and grandchildren. She will forever be in my memories. Rest in Peace until we meet again.
