“ *In 1975, you asked a 17 year old kid to try out for your legendary Scottsdale Saints football team. You coached me well, nurtured me like a little brother and taught me the fundamentals of the game. You awarded me Rookie of the Year and invited the Clark College coach to come out to the championship game and see the 17 year old kid play. Because of you, I was able to earn a full athletic scholarship and received a degree. After my catastrophic injury you ministered to me about God's plan. I will continue to remember you in my prayers every night. May the wind always be at your back; the sun shine warmly on your face; the rain fall gently across your fields and until we meet again may God hold you in the palm of His hand.
