“ I am so sorry for your loss. Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ Edith loved working in her yard and planting a garden. We loved talking about flowers and going to the nursery to purchase flowers or just look and talk. Just a wonderful person to know. Kind, caring and thoughtful. We had fun trips to O' Charley's, the peach farm, and the Bullock House. We will miss our friend but cherish the memories. Our prayers are with the family.

“ Edith,

You were the last of my ancestors. The last of a generation that guided my steps, encouraged me, and sometimes chastised me.

But you guys always loved me unconditionally.

I remember how all the Robinsons fell in love with you when Uncle Dawson married you. Me because you did not treat this ten-year old like a child and I loved your laugh.

I went to IIT because YOU went to IIT. I got a Masters because YOU got a Masters. Wow, what an impact you made on my life just like my Mom and other Aunts.

I am so glad that I got to share a few hours with you last summer and was looking forward to visiting you later this year. I was hoping to share more of your memories in Chicago with us Robinsons. And pictures of “Mother Robinson”.

It’s kind of lonely now, with no elders, but I will follow you example and continue to do the best I can.

Love,

*Your Niece

“ To the Family & Friends of Ms. Robinson:
I offer condolences and encouragement to you all. Please keep in mind..."God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus assures us: "I am the resurrection and the life.

The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). This is in harmony with God's promise that "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus') voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8a).

“ WHEN OUR ENEMY DEATH STRIKES OUR LOVE ONES GRIEF
CAN BE OVERWHELMING. BUT GOD HAVE MADE PROVISIONS THAT GIVE ALL MANKIND HOPE. WHEN YOU FEEL UP TO IT
PLEASE READ JOHN 5:28,29 AND REV. 21:4. I'M SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS. L. J. STONE MOUNTAIN, GA.
