EDNA BALL MANNING born on July 9, 1925, to Furlanders Ball and Effie Lee Johnson of Reform, AL, both deceased. She was the third child of many siblings.

She professed Christ at an early age, and she was baptized at Popular Springs CME Church, Reform, AL. She attended school in Pickens County, AL.

Upon relocating to Tuscaloosa, AL, Edna continued to be a devoted mother, grandmother and caregiver to many throughout her lifetime. Edna's personality was characterized by her generosity, her wisdom, her humor, and her love for her family. She was a great friend and was loved by the many people whose life she touched. She was great with flowers and was known for her homemade Brunswick Stew and cornbread dressing.

During the time she relocated to Georgia, she remained the same sweet person and we all have many memories of her warm spirit.

Fond memories are to be cherished by her loving children, Mary Gee; Doris Manning Tate, and Vincent Manning (Debra) and Robert Earl Manning; two sisters, Laura Dubose, and Ethelrine Moulton; along with a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews extended family and friends.
