

Mrs. Edna M Newton "Candy"

August 17, 1943 - September 19, 2023

Edna M. Newton, affectionally known as Candy, was born on August 17, 1943, and was the only child of both, the late Eddie and Catherine Jones. She is a graduate of Pinevale H.S. located in Valdosta, GA. She attended Morris Brown College in Atlanta and M.I.T. School of Business in Uniondale, New York. She retired from Estee Lauder Cosmetic Company, after 17 years of employment as a Quality Control Supervisor. Candy later went to work as a Community Health Advocate for Diabetes at the Suffolk County Department of Health in the Maxine S. Postal/Tri-Community Health Center in Amityville, New York, later retiring again in 2008.

She met the love of her life, Samuel Newton Sr, during elementary school in Valdosta Georgia and in 1961 they were married. They have been married for 62 years but together for over 70 years. From this union were born 5 children that they raised in Wyandanch (Long Island) New York for over 40 years until relocating to Covington, Georgia in 2009.

As an active member of the community, Edna was a charter member of the Wyandanch Midget Football League, now a part of the Wyandanch Youth Services. She held many leadership positions in the PTA and PTSA at all school levels in her community.

Edna was the recipient of numerous awards including Parent of the Year awards from Midget Football and Venette Cultural Workshop, and the Town of Babylon Outstanding Service award, Volunteer of the Year Award from Wyandanch Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Program and the New York State Communities for a Healthier New York Award for her work on Diabetes Project at Cornell Cooperative Extension. She was a founding member of the Witness Project of the Town of Babylon, Beautification Chairperson of Wyandanch Weed and Seed, and Vice President of the Wyandanch Coalition. She was appointed to the Wyandanch Rising Implementation Committee by Town of Babylon Supervisor Steven Bellon. She was also a member of the Suffolk County Women's Commission.

While in New York Edna was a faithful member of Bethel A.M.E. Church in Copiague, New York, where she was very active in many organizations. In 1985 she was crowned queen of the church, raising the most money of all participants that year. She also was a founding member of First A.M.E. Church of Wyandanch under the leadership of the late Rev. Constance Carter Davis-England. Later in 2012 she became a member of Bethlehem Baptist Church, located in Covington, under the leadership of Rev. Hezekiah Benton Jr. where she was a member of the Senior Choir.

While Edna has received many awards, citations, and proclamations she has always wanted everyone to know what was important to her: "She LOVES the Lord and will help her fellow man when and wherever there is a need".

She leaves to cherish her memory, Samuel Newton Sr., her devoted husband of 62 years. Five loving children, Regina Washington, Samuel Newton Jr., Brian Newton, Lisa King (Eric) and Gregory Newton (Tonya). Eight grandchildren, Warren Glover, Gary Washington, Brandonn Washington (Karen), Jillian Brown (Jeremiah), Brian Newton Jr., Erica King, Tyler Newton, Terrell Newton. Four Great Grand Children, Caleb Bridges, Jonah Brown, Brielle Washington, Jaylah Brown, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

In lieu of flowers please, make donations of plants, fruit baskets or gift cards.

“ I just came across a 1989 newsletter from Wyandanch Schools featuring Mrs. Edna Newton as a Community Member Profile. The quote was "I love all children. All parents should become involved if they really want the very best for their children and the other children in the community".

Rest in perfect peace, Mrs. Newton. A beautiful lady with captivating eyes and a sense of elegance.

“ In loving memory to a beautiful woman Mrs Edna Newton and my daughters family. What a truly nice person she was... understanding and kind. Many good memories of my daughters grandparents always being there for her and myself when she was small. She was a wonderful grandma and the beautiful memories will live on in all of her grandchildren. She was always a friend to me and that is cherished... I pray all those who loved her and laughed with her find comfort in the times they shared and may those wonderful times live on in their hearts. Rest in Peace Mrs Newton ❤️🙏

“Eds” as I lovingly called her was completely dedicated to her community; particularly young people. Even after moving to Georgia Eds reached back to Long Island each year to continue her support of the UJIMA Internship program. Prior to leaving Long Island Eds had been working on getting a clock installed in Wyandanch. It was a long time coming and Edna had been working on it for years, jumping through hoops and cutting through bureaucratic red tape. She vowed that the clock would be installed before she left and it was. She was missed when she left Long Island but she wasn't forgotten and she will never be forgotten. Her legacy will live on. 🥰

“ I extend my prayers and deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Newton. She was a PHENOMENAL mentor, advocate and community activist for the youth and families of Wyandanch, Long Island, NY. She was a pillar of the community who embodied excellence, grace, authenticity, love and kindness. She mentored and poured wisdom into the lives of my friends and I. Her impact on my life and the community is immeasurable. She will be greatly missed! May Mrs. Newton's legacy live on in all those touched by her light!

To the family of Mrs. Edna "Candy" Newton, please accept our prayers and sympathy in the loss of your wife and mother. Mrs. Candy and my mother, Ruby Hezekiah, were friends who graduated from Pinevale High School in 1961, married their high school sweetheart, and had their first child that same year. Whenever she made her visits from New York to Valdosta and later Atlanta to Valdosta, she would include a visit with my mother. She was a sweet lady. May God grant you all the comfort and peace that only He can give you. With deepest sympathy and love, Stephanie Hezekiah-Bivins and Family
